W. Todd Schoettelkotte is President and a Managing Director of IPFC Corp. Mr. Schoettelkotte has more than 20 years of experience in the evaluation and quantification of economic damages arising from patent, copyright and trademark infringement, and trade secret misappropriation disputes. His clients have included numerous Fortune 500 companies in a wide variety of industries including semiconductor, telecommunication, energy, consumer products, life sciences and computers (hardware, software and the internet). Mr. Schoettelkotte has been recognized by Intellectual Asset Management Magazine as one of the leading patent damages experts in the United States. Mr. Schoettelkotte's background is in accounting, finance and economics, and he has a specific, focused understanding of those issues integral to the valuation and management of intellectual property.

Intellectual Property Valuation

Mr. Schoettelkotte has directed numerous valuation projects related to patents, trademarks and trade secrets. A significant portion of his practice is focused on the determination of royalty rates and terms for licensing agreements. Additionally, Mr. Schoettelkotte has conducted numerous studies involving lost profits and unjust enrichment.

In the process of assisting clients in the valuation of intellectual property assets, Mr. Schoettelkotte has participated in the identification and review of business plans, market studies, financial documents and other related information.

Patent, Copyright and Trademark Infringement

Mr. Schoettelkotte has performed market analyses/studies wherein the patented or copyrighted product is sold, assessed lost profits stemming from alleged infringements, evaluated the contribution of the patented process/method to the end product and established the economic value of the underlying intellectual property.

Mr. Schoettelkotte is skilled in the application of the Georgia-Pacific factors to the determination of reasonable royalty rates. He has determined reasonable royalty rates within patent infringement suits on many occasions in numerous industries. Over the course of his career, Mr. Schoettelkotte has reviewed hundreds of license agreements, providing a broad frame of reference for reasonable royalty damages analyses. Mr. Schoettelkotte has testified in federal and state court and arbitration proceedings on matters involving intellectual property valuation, lost profits, reasonable royalty and economic damages issues.
